

2012 YEAR-END REPORT: THE YEAR OF THE SMEAR

RADICAL HOMOSEXUAL MILITANTS ATTACK PASTOR SCOTT LIVELY FOR PREACHING BIBLICAL TRUTH

2012 was “The Year of the Smear.” It started with a continuation of the effort begun in January 2011 by the Massachusetts “gay” community and their allies to drive me out of Springfield. If you recall, their conspiracy to smear me began with a “hit piece” on the front page of the Boston Globe, which was followed within the next week by two additional attacks by our local paper, The Republican.

The character assassination was followed by a series of protests at my little mission church, Holy Grounds Coffee House. The largest and most significant protest being the only time in it’s history that the Occupy movement diverted from fiscal to social issues. Their “Occupy Hate” rally focused on accusing me of “homophobic” bigotry.

I responded by reading to the crowd from Romans 1:18-32.

Later in the year I went to Illinois to receive the 2011 Truth Teller Award from Americans for Truth

About Homosexuality. The “gays” smashed out the window of the church I was scheduled to speak in.

Meanwhile, an internet petition campaign tried to force PayPal to close down our account (thankfully without success).

They next took out ads in the local paper to express outrage that I had moved into the community, and blamed me for the murder of Ugandan homosexual leader David

Kato (whose actual confessed killer was a male prostitute now serving 30 years in prison).

When I spoke at a Tea Party Rally in Boston early in 2012, the “gays” nearly started a riot, smashing through the crowd of patriots and their families, screaming insults.

“gays” with a march to Holy Grounds from the courthouse, featuring activists in death masks carrying coffins emblazoned with the name of David Kato.

It is clear that the homosexual activists see this ministry as a great threat to their selfish and destructive agenda and are determined to silence me no matter what it takes...

BUT COME WHAT MAY, I WILL NOT STOP SPEAKING THE PLAIN TRUTH OF THE BIBLE.
Please give generously to our year-end campaign to keep this vital ministry on the front lines!

God Bless You! Dr. Scott Lively

Stop the Hate: A Message from Springfield

An anti-gay minister in Springfield?

Scott Lively came to Springfield in 2008. Since then, as president of the Abiding Truth Ministries, which has been classified as a hate group by the Southern Poverty Law Center, he has been running the Holy Grounds Coffee House on State Street right near Commerce High School.

What does this have to do with us?

- Lively is known as the author of anti-gay books such as The Pink Swastika: Homosexuality and the Nazi Party and Why and How to Defeat the "Gay" Movement. Now, from his base in Springfield, he is going around the world spreading hate.
- In 2009, Lively went to Uganda with two other evangelicals to speak out against events associated with his visit fueled anti-gay actions in Uganda. Uganda's government began discussion of anti-gay legislation osexuality a capital crime, punishable by a life sentence or Jenies support of the legislation's death penalty provision criminalize homosexuality a "step in the right direction."

a young gay activist named David Kato was brutally beaten to death in broad daylight at his Kato's murder Lively claimed that "revolutionists of Sodom" are intent on destroying but also claimed that he was through with anti-gay activism.

ly flew to Moldova at the request of a "pro-family" group there to speak against a European

The most aggressive action to date has been the filing of a federal lawsuit against me for “Crimes Against Humanity” for preaching against homosexuality in Uganda, the filing of which was celebrated by the

Pastor sued over gay rights stance

Scott Lively's detractors have been taking to the streets in protest.

By STEPHANIE BARRY sbarry@repub.com

SPRINGFIELD — “Brother Lee” credits Pastor Scott Lively with saving his life and di-Marchers head up State Street in Springfield on Wednesday carrying a cardboard coffin memorializing David Kato, a gay activist, who was murdered last year in Uganda. Video and photo gallery at masslive.com.

here to go and no one to turn supporters poised to respond. I was homeless and had no- to a group of about 100 pro- where to stay ... and Pastor testers descending on the front Lively said now you have a steps of the coffee house place to stay," said Lee. 38. Wednesday afternoon. A fence who of Lively sexual every rights? Go has at

Case 3:12-cv-30051 Document 1 Filed 03/14/12 Page 1 of 47

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS
SPRINGFIELD DIVISION

SEXUAL MINORITIES UGANDA
Plaintiff,

v.

SCOTT LIVELY, individually and as President of Abiding Truth Ministries Defendant.

Civil Action
COMPLAINT
FOR CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY OF PERSECUTION
DEMAND
FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

1 This case is brought by Sexual Minorities Uganda (“SMUG”), an umbrella organization located in Kampala, Uganda, which represents the interests of its constituent member organizations in advocating for the rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex people (“LOBIT”) in Uganda. It is brought against defendant Scott LIVELY, a U.S.-based attorney, author, evangelical minister and self-described world-leading expert on the “gay movement,” for the decade-long campaign he has waged, in coordination with his Ugandan counterparts, to persecute persons on the basis of their gender and/or sexual orientation and gender identity.

2 The case is brought under the Alien Tort Statute (“ATS”), 28 U.S.C. §1350, which provides federal jurisdiction for “any civil action by an alien, for a tort only, committed in violation of the law of nations or a treaty of the United States.” The United States Supreme Court has affirmed the use of the ATS as a remedy for serious