

CHAPTER ELEVEN: PART THREE

THE EMERGING AGE OF APOSTASY

Here I will shift to a testimonial style as a first-person witness of the topics I will address. I began writing this book just over a decade ago in 2011, at which time I had already devoted twenty years of my life to fighting the culture war as a front lines Christian social and political activist across the globe. It was not accidental (in God's plan) that the focus of my ministry was opposition to the so-called LGBT movement. The "sexual revolution" has always been led (sometimes from behind the scenes) by this small but powerful faction since it emerged in Germany in the 1860s. This sexual juggernaut is both the centerpiece of the globalist agenda (in the sociopolitical context), and the fulfilment of prophecy regarding the age of apostasy (in the religious/spiritual context).

Regarding the sociopolitical context, my first book (co-authored by Orthodox Holocaust researcher, Kevin Abrams), The Pink Swastika: Homosexuality in the Nazi Party (1995) details key aspects of that history and their effect on Germany. My fourth book Redeeming the Rainbow: A Christian Response to the "Gay" Agenda (2009), addressed the continuation of that history in the United States, which became the new center of LGBT-driven "sexual revolution" after Germany was defeated in WWII. In many ways, the German experience was the "dress-rehearsal" for the American saga of debauchery and deviance-created chaos we are living today.

In any case, for the first twenty years of my thirty year ministry, I was single focused on the sociopolitical battles – to such an extent that in 2014 the largest and most powerful LGBT organization in the world, the Human Rights Campaign, named me the top opponent of their agenda internationally, in a dossier funded by the billionaire "gay rights" activist Paul Singer. I have thus had a particularly crucial vantage point on geopolitics relative to the rise of apostasy, which, importantly, the Apostle Paul in Romans 1:18-32 (bolstered by 2 Timothy 3:1-9) describes as

1. A spiritual phenomenon measured by cultural effects
2. Triggered by the widespread normalization of homosexuality.

So, when in 2011 the Lord turned my attention to prophecy as a parallel ministry track, I already had a unique understanding and perspective of the cause/effect relationship of LGBT activism to cultural chaos. That gave me special insights into end time prophecy, culminating in my sixth book The Petros Prophecy: Simon Peter's Prophetic Warning About the Heresy of the Last Days (2017). Significantly, that book began as a section of this book, but took on a life of its own through its identification of “gay theology” as a heresy which became increasingly conspicuous as the LGBT conquest of Christian churches and denominations escalated in conjunction with the legal, cultural and political imposition of “gay” marriage on the nation.

The most important references to homosexuality in the Bible are catalogued in the chart on page 172 which was created to support the claim of The Petros Prophecy that the sum of the parts revealing the mind of God on this issue is greater than the whole, showing that the social normalization of homosexual perversion has always been the chief harbinger of the wrath of God. The implications for that – in the context of our question “What Happens Next” – are both profound and disturbing.

THE LUCIFERIAN SCHEDULE FOR CHAOS FROM ORDER

The biblical Book of Genesis explains the order of God’s creation from the establishment of time, space and matter (Genesis 1:1-19), to the introduction of living things by the order of their “kinds” (1:20-25) to the creation of humankind as a binary male/female pair created in His image (1:27), to the establishment of family from the “one-flesh” paradigm (2:24), to the establishment and refinement of human civilization as an interconnected network of families that over time formed tribes and nations with separate, often conflicting laws and interests. After several human societal failures, God chose Abraham as his agent to introduce a new covenant-based civilization in which the descendants of Abraham, Issac and Jacob would serve as examples of right and wrong, good and bad, based upon their compliance or noncompliance with His laws which He issued in stages as civilization was ready for them.

That is a short summary of the simple, satisfying and truthful story of the birth of civilization that American school-children were taught from the founding of our nation until the middle of the 20th Century, when the humanist religion of Marxism supplanted Christianity and children began being taught they were the arbitrary product of random chance, descended from pond scum by way of monkeys.

Over a few short decades, the benign social order that comported with the biblical model morphed into today’s chaos of confusion and human misery we still call public schools (not to disparage the many good Christian and other morally-grounded teachers who serve as praiseworthy exceptions to the rule). The tradition of happy and innocent kindergartners sitting around a beloved teacher to hear her read stories that blessed and inspired them has been replaced by the grotesque “Drag Queen Story Hour” in which adult men dressed as clownish caricatures of women introduce the children to LGBT political propaganda and teach them to parrot it.

And parrot it they have, all the way into young adulthood, where the newest fad is “transitioning” to a different gender starting with puberty blocking chemicals and ending with transsexual surgery to permanently mutilate their bodies. All to fulfill the vision of “sexual freedom” they have been taught to cherish as the most important “human right” of all. All fully endorsed, supported and celebrated by the principalities and powers of the political left.

It is a collapse into social insanity so twisted and bizarre as to seem like some LSD-induced nightmare – but it is all too real. Just ask parent Rob Hoogland of British Columbia, Canada, who in 2021 served time in jail for trying to interfere with his minor daughter’s choice to “transition” to the opposite sex after that choice had been endorsed by his government in defiance of his God-given parental rights.

The satanic agenda among humankind has always been to defile and destroy human beings, individually and collectively, because we are loved by God and made in His image. In the modern age he has worked to bring chaos from order through the so-called sexual revolution, and the cornerstone of his strategy has been the LGBT agenda, because the “sexual minorities” of that coalition have always had the greatest motivation to overthrow what cultural Marxism pioneer Herbert Marcuse called “the repressive order of procreative sexuality.” And so from the rise of an organized “gay” movement in the late 1940s in the form of Harry Hay’s Mattachine Society, to the sharp hard left turn to hard-core LGBT militancy in the Stonewall riots of 1969, to the Supreme Court’s establishment of “gay” cultural supremacy over Christianity in the four landmark rulings of Justice Anthony Kennedy (1996–2015), the LGBT movement has driven the “progress” of social change.

If you look carefully at the history of the sexual revolution in America you can see that it has dismantled civilization in the reverse order to which God established it.

First came the attack on the rule of Bible-influenced law regarding natural-family centered society. That was a multi-faceted attack in the 1950s that was driven by Alfred Kinsey’s fraudulent reports wildly exaggerating Americans’ level of sexual deviance, the launch of the soft pornography industry by Hugh Hefner (who called himself “Kinsey’s Pamphleteer”), and a new Hollywood genre of movies normalizing adultery and fornication featuring “in-the-closet” homosexuals such as Rock Hudson. That attack continued in the 1960s with the push for “contraception on demand” (to facilitate fornication as a cultural value), the push for abortion on demand (as a back-up to contraception), and the push for “no-fault divorce” laws (to neutralize the long-standing legal penalties for adultery).

Thus, the rule of God’s law in sexual and family matters was effectively broken by the 1970s, with Roe v Wade in ‘73 being the Marxists’ most prized conquest. Although they were largely unseen in this process, the LGBTs provided the army of activists pushing hetero-“sexual freedom” and absolute autonomy over one’s body in sexual/reproductive matters as a necessary precursor to their own “liberation” and legitimization.

Second came the attack on the foundation of the family itself -- the “one-flesh paradigm” made from the two complimentary halves of humanity – per Genesis 2:24. This was the LGB phase – the normalization of lesbianism (L), male homosexuality (G), and bisexuality (B).

That campaign ran parallel to the attack on the rule of law but took center stage in 1969 with the Stonewall Riots, when the LGBTs dropped their pretense of seeking only what Harry Hay’s partner Dale Jennings had called “the right to be left alone,” and began fighting for total cultural control, starting with 200 of their groups publishing the (very aggressive) first written “Gay Agenda” in 1972. Next came the takeover of the American Psychiatric Association (APA) in 1973 to declassify homosexual deviance as a mental/behavioral disorder, followed by the slow but steady takeover of America’s public education system to shape the future through the indoctrination of children. In the 1980s and 90s the overt promotion of LGBT propaganda to school-children was formalized in the “Safe Schools” “anti-bullying” campaigns that crushed all faculty and parental resistance like the blitzkrieg of Nazi tanks that rolled into Poland in 1939.

Both the school systems and the teachers’ unions had long been conquered in the deep blue states (and the deep blue cities in the red states) by the time LGBT champion Barack Obama took the White House in 2008. He further solidified that control by creating the position of “Safe Schools Czar,” manned by the pro-pederasty pioneer Kevin Jennings, founder of the Gay Lesbian Straight Teacher Network (GLSTN) which changed its name to Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network (GLSEN) both to obscure the activist role of the teachers, and to broaden its coalition of brain-washers to include school administrators. Jennings also launched the now nationwide network of “Gay-Straight Alliance” student clubs (which have never been anything other than LGBT recruiting and activism staging centers).

The third wave of attack, unfolding today, centers on the normalization of transgenderism – which in the spiritual perspective is to destroy the premise that human beings are indeed created male and female by God in His image. That is the purpose of the “non-binary” canard and the ever growing list of invented “genders” that children are encouraged to choose for themselves. It is not only preposterous but blasphemous.

Practically speaking, transgenderism means the end of the extended natural family as the acknowledged fabric of society. Already the English language is being reshaped to eliminate it, backed by the power of the state to punish dissent for “misgendering” people and banning words like “Mom” and “Dad.” Every new category of “gender” to which children assign their loyalty becomes a new civil rights category with its own demands for accommodation – the collective effect of which is to make sexual identity arbitrary and meaningless. And, of course, every child who embraces transgender logic has essentially given themselves over to a “reprobate mind” with the possibility of never being restored to reason due to the effect that changes in our most fundamental sense of reality can have. It is literally (not figuratively) the choice of politicalnarrative-driven insanity over self-evident reality.

The transgender agenda also carries with it, like the soldiers in the belly of the Trojan Horse, both the elimination of parental rights, and the implicit normalization of pedophilia, by establishing the legal and cultural “right” of children to “sexual freedom” on their own terms. As noted above, the death of parental rights is the obvious consequence beginning to manifest. Less obvious is pedophilia – until you become aware of the euphemisms it hides behind: including “children’s rights” (as in the global Treaty on the Rights of the Child, which the US has not signed...yet), and the phrase “intergenerational relationships” which has been a staple of Planned Parenthood’s pro-LGBT propaganda to schoolchildren for well over a decade. Another name for “intergenerational relationships” which civilization has known for millennia is pederasty – the ancient core of male homosexual culture that the North American Man/Boy Love Association (NAMBLA) was formed to advocate for.

Fourth and finally, there is a second, hidden “T” behind transgenderism, which stands for transhumanism, the satanic attack on the order of creation itself as seen in God’s division of animals into “kinds” and the distinction of human beings from the animals (Genesis 1:20-25).

Transhumanism is the philosophical and scientific movement to create a new, “higher” form of humans, created by us to be better than homo sapiens, through genetic modifications (including the blending of human and animal DNA), computer-based artificial intelligence, and physical augmentation of human bodies with robotic components. Once exclusively the realm of science fiction, it is the emerging next wave of human “evolution” that “transgenderism” is preparing the younger generations to accept as normal. It is the predictable maturation of “eugenics” that has entranced the global elites since the days of Charles Darwin and his nephew Francis Galton – and helps explain the mentality behind the tyrannical gene-therapy based mRNA global “vaccination” scheme we’re presently suffering.

There would be nothing left of the biblical order in the aftermath of transhumanism. Satan’s prophecy that we would become like gods for eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 3:1-7) would be fulfilled, and God’s remedy of banishing us from the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3:22-24) to protect the tree of life would be thwarted (because the ultimate end goal of transhumanism is achieving immortality by our own hand). For this reason I believe God will soon intervene directly (Maranatha!) but until then we face very dark times.

All along it has been the public school system that has served as the engine of social transformation, and all along it has been the humanist doctrine of “sexual freedom” (in actuality sexual anarchy) that has served as the motivator for schoolchildren to first willingly comply and then become enthusiastic agents in its spread. The schools have become, emphatically, temples of humanism and the children acolytes of their anti-biblical doctrines.

To reiterate, I have been a frontlines Christian social and political activist for more than thirty years, in dozens of countries across five continents, as a pastor, lawyer, writer, public speaker, and human rights consultant. Nearly my entire adult life has been devoted to fighting the LGBT agenda and warning others about it. I have suffered extreme persecution for it, but have been blessed by God far beyond the cost I've paid.

However, from the time I joined the pro-family movement in the late 1980s at the height of the Reagan Revolution until the present time, the LGBT war on Christianity has been one long losing battle for the pro-family side – a continuous rear-guard action -- punctuated by a few temporary victories that stalled but never reversed the trend. The entire elite strata of globalist power-brokers and puppet-masters, including our own Supreme Court, is arrayed against us, and they own all the key institutions of our society, including public education, and a growing swath of “Christendom.”

The Luciferian schedule of deconstruction has taken Judeo-Christian civilization to the brink of collapse, ushering in a scene such as the days of Noah that Jesus warned against, and fostering a culture of lawlessness that suggests the imminency of the Antichrist's emergence as described in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12.
